JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 6th September 1902.

RESOLUTION.—The following rules have been approved by Government and should be notified in the Bombay Government Gazette :—

Rules framed under Section 46 (2) (a) of Police Act V of 1861 for the guidance of the Police on the B., B. & C. I. and R.-M. Railways, in the matter of arrest and prosecution under Sections 101 and 131 of the Indian Railways Act (IX of 1890) : —

Arrest.

The exercise, by the Railway Police, of the power of arrest without warrant given them in Section 131 of the Indian Railways Act (IX of 1890), for offences under Section 101 of the same Act, is discretionary. It should be exercised only in extreme cases, as for instance, when—

(a) there has been loss of life or serious injury to person ; or

(b) a person is caught in the commission of a grave offence ; and

(c) the accused is likely to abscond or to continue to endanger the safety of the public.

When arrest is made without warrant, immediate intimation of such arrest must be given to the head of the Railway employé's Department.

2. Under ordinary circumstances, no immediate arrest is necessary. A warrant should be applied for in the usual manner, the police maintaining a watch over the movements of the accused, where this precaution is deemed necessary.

3. When arrest is effected by warrant, the warrant should, in the absence of any direction to the contrary in the warrant under Section 77 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, be executed by a police officer of rank ~~superior to~~ that of a Head Constable, ~~First Grade~~. The officer, entrusted with the execution of the warrant, will execute it judiciously, and, if the arrest is likely to cause risk or inconvenience to the public, make arrangements to prevent the escape of the accused and apply to the head of his Department to have him relieved, arrest being deferred till he is so relieved.

PROSECUTION.

4. No prosecution for an offence under Section 101 of the Indian Railways Act (IX of 1890), shall be instituted by a police officer without the sanction of the Superintendent of the Railway Police, which shall be communicated immediately it is accorded to the Agent or the Manager of the Railway.

2. The Inspector-General of Police should issue the above rules departmentally under Section 27 (b) and (h) of the Bombay District Police Act (Bombay IV of 1890), in the case of the G. I. P. and S. M. Railways.
